(a) Percentile Scores are normalised scores across multi session papers and are based on the relative performance of all those who appeared for the examination in this subject. The marks obtained are transformed into a scale ranging from 100 to 0 for each session of examinees.

(b) The Percentile Score indicates the percentage of candidates who have scored EQUAL TO OR BELOW (same or lower raw score) that particular candidate in that session.

(c) The Percentile scores of a Candidate have been calculated as follows:

$$100 \times \frac{\text{Number of candidates appeared in the 'Session' with raw score EQUAL TO OR LESS than the candidate}}{\text{Total number of the candidates appeared in the 'Session'}}$$

(d) The Percentile Score of the Total is NOT an aggregate or average of the Percentile Score of individual papers.

(e) Percentile score is not the same as percentage of marks obtained.

WESTERN RAILWAY

TERMS AND CONDITION

- 1 The candidate will have to take an oath/make solemn affirmation of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India.
- 2 The candidate is liable to be transferred/posted to any station on the Railway and accepting appointment would indicate that he accepts this condition.
- 3 The appointment of the candidate is subject to declaration that he is not serving elsewhere at the time of his joining the Railway or that if he is already employed; his employer has permitted him to take up another employment and has relieved him from his present job.
- 4 The continuance of the candidate in Railway service shall be subject to your character and antecedents being found satisfactory by Police/District Authorities.
- 5 In case, at any stage, it is found that any certificate/ document/ testimonial, etc. furnished by the candidate and having a bearing on your eligibility is not in order or any information/material facts having bearing on your eligibility has been hidden and found to be false, then the appointment of the candidate is liable to be cancelled forthwith without prejudice to any other punitive action under relevant rules.
- 6 The candidate belonging to SC/ST/OBC/EWS category may please note that the appointment is provisional and is subject to the Caste/Tribe/EWS certificate being verified through proper channel. If the verification reveals that the claim to belong to SC or ST or EWS or belong to creamy layer of OBC, as the case may be, is false, his services shall be terminated forthwith without assigning any further reason and without prejudice to such further action as may be taken under the provisions of the Indian Panel Code for production of false certificate.
- 7 In terms of Railway Board's letter No.2004/PC/21/1 dated 19/02/2004(RBE No.05/2004), the candidate appointed on or after 01.01.2004 will be governed under the New Pension Scheme.
- 8 The candidate shall have to submit a declaration to the effect that he has not more than one wife as more than one wife disqualifies a person for government Railway service.
9. The candidate has to undergo initial/refresher training Course (wherever applicable) when planned by the Administration. The candidate has to pass the said training successfully. Further retention/ regularisation in Railway services of the candidates will depend upon the successful passing the said Training/Course
10. In the interest of the candidate, he should communicate his request for extension in joining time if required. In case no such communication is received and the candidate does not report within the stipulated time as laid down in the call letter, his candidature is liable to be cancelled and the request of revival of offer will not be considered.

(a) Percentile Scores are normalised scores across multi session papers and are based on the relative performance of all those who appeared for the examination in this subject. The marks obtained are transformed into a scale ranging from 100 to 0 for each session of examinees.

(b) The Percentile Score indicates the percentage of candidates who have scored EQUAL TO OR BELOW (same or lower raw scores) that particular candidate in that session.

(c) The Percentile scores of a Candidate have been calculated as follows:

$$\frac{100 \times \text{Number of candidates appeared in the 'Session' with raw score EQUAL TO OR LESS than the candidate}}{\text{Total number of the candidates appeared in the 'Session'}}$$

(d) The Percentile Score of the Total is NOT an aggregate or average of the Percentile Score of individual papers.

(e) Percentile score is not the same as percentage of marks obtained.
